The Art of Education is a Science: Daily Lectures with Christof Wiechert

In this time of healing and restoration, of emergence after a year that has turned our schools inside out, we are coming together in a renewed spirit of openness and collaboration. Christof Wiechert will offer both the Keynote on Opening Day, June 27th, and daily lectures to all Week 1 participants. Christof will bring our Waldorf methods to life, sharing essential elements of the qualities that serve our children, our parents, and our schools toward a future that demands our courage, our clear thinking, and our love.

Conversations on Decomposing the Colonial Gaze: Stories for a New Paradigm with Chérie & Petna Ndaliko

Stories for a New Paradigm is rooted in the Nande proverb that the world is made of stories, and human beings enact the stories we believe. Building on this indigenous worldview, Chérie and Petna Ndaliko offer tools to help educators tell—and enact—transformative stories to navigate the many challenges and possibilities of our era. In dialogue with alumni of their foundational course, Decomposing the Colonial Gaze, the Ndalikos will share insights and practices that open new possibilities for the academic, artistic, social, emotional, behavioral, and will-building aspects of Waldorf education.

Eurythmy and Therapeutic Movement with Leonore Russell
