Introducing KAIROS INSTITUTE, a new initiative of the Center for Anthroposophy, in collaboration with the Transdisciplinary Healing Education Program at Antioch University New England

Kairos will launch its training in artistic therapies July 3-8, 2022 with Bernd Ruf's Emergency Pedagogy. The program will have in-person residencies in Wilton, NH, in the spring and summer, plus online courses in the fall, including international faculty. The Kairos and TSHE programs may be taken separately or together. For participants seeking to complete an artistic therapies training, the Kairos Institute will offer pathways for an International Standards Diploma in artistic therapies certified by the Medical Section at the Goetheanum. For info. and to join our mailing list, please write to info@centerforanthroposophy.org, or visit: bit.ly/KairosCfA. Those interested in earning an accredited MEd or Certificate in Healing Education through Antioch University, and those wishing to take further training in artistic therapies, should send their inquiries to Karine Munk Finser, Director of the Transdisciplinary Studies in Healing Education Program (TSHE), at kfinser@antioch.edu.
