

Renewal Courses 2023

Week II
July 2 - 7, 2023
(in-person)

Registration begins
February 1st!

Special Evening
Lectures with –
Christof
Wiechert and Bernd Ruf

For more information contact –
Karen Atkinson
Renewal Program Director
karen@centerforanthroposophy.org

Deepening Connections

Join us at the idyllic setting of High Mowing School in Wilton, New Hampshire for a retreat this summer! Take the opportunity to rest and unwind while engaging with anthroposophy and the arts, connecting with a wide community of individuals inspired by Waldorf education.
Living in Transformations – Projective Geometry and Plant Study – with Henrike and Craig Holdrege

The Child and Student Study Through Elementary and High School – with Christof Wiechert

Teaching Subject Classes in Independent and Public Waldorf Schools – with Jason Child

Into the Black: Personal and Universal Biography-Informed Chalkboard Painting and Classroom Art in Grades 1-5 – with Adrienne Patrick

Art History and the Evolution of Human Consciousness, for Upper Grades and High School – with Patrick Stolfo, M.A.

The Art of Storytelling: Using the Language of the Archetypes for Social Justice, Inner Development, and a Healing Education – with Irene Richardson

Teaching Physical Science in Grades 6, 7, & 8 – with Will Minehart

Creating, Writing, Orchestrating, and Leading a Class Play – with Rob Lanier

Transforming Perspectives on Technology: Working with Eurythmy and Charcoal Drawing – with Jason Yates

Introduction to Eurythmy in the Working Life: Bringing Harmony to Everyday Social and Working Interactions – with Leonore Russell

Living Thinking – with Michael D'Aleo

centerforanthroposophy.org/programs/renewal-courses