

Become a Waldorf Teacher and join a worldwide movement that has been making a difference for over 100 years

The Waldorf Teacher Education program at Antioch University has been aligned with the social justice mission of Antioch for over 40 years, and continues to engage students in finding answers to these questions:

Features of the Antioch low-residency programs:

- Earn a graduate certificate in Waldorf Education recognized by the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America (AWSNA)
- Earn an MEd from a fully-accredited, nonprofit university
- Prepare to teach in independent as well as charter/public Waldorf schools
- Live in your community and attend summer residencies in NH
- Enjoy a 10% discount if three or more attend from the same school or district
- Continue your studies with an EdD in Educational and Professional Practice with a specialization in Waldorf Education

How does Waldorf Education meet our present times?

What do today's students need of their teachers?