

Renewal Courses

with Center for Anthroposophy

In-person courses to immerse in the arts, connect with community, gather inspiration for the coming year, and take time for self-care

Online courses provide inspirational and practical preparation for grades 1-8

Offerings designed to support the inner-life and renewal of educators from Early Childhood through High School

In-Person Retreat
June 30 - July 5, 2024
in Wilton, NH

Online Courses
July 8-12, 2024

Experience renewal and rejuvenation at our in-person retreat in Wilton, NH or engage in a robust on-line experience

Join over 400 participants and 25 seasoned faculty members in the third decade of Renewal Course offerings!

Center for Anthroposophy

centerforanthroposophy.org

For more information,
Contact Karen Atkinson, Program Director
karen@centerforanthroposophy.org

Renewal Courses: In-Person Retreat with Center for Anthroposophy

In-Person Retreat : June 30 - July 5, 2024

High Mowing School, Wilton, NH

Preparing to Teach Grades 1-8:

- One Whole Class: Preparing for Grade 1 - Sarah Galligan
- Our Feet in Two Worlds: Preparing for Grade 2 - Jen Persinotti
- Awakening to Self and Surroundings: Preparing for Grade 3 - Kris Ritz
- Ready, Willing, and Able: Preparing for Grade 4 - Joshua Gartland
- I Look into the World: Preparing for Grade 5 - Jen Kershaw
- Discovering Order in Chaos: Preparing for Grade 6 - Irene Richardson
- Gaining Perspective: Preparing for Grade 7 - Alison Henry
- Revolutions of Awakening: Preparing for Grade 8 - Katherine Nickel

Additional Renewal Courses:

- The Class Teacher: What was Steiner Thinking? - Jack Petrash with Special Guest Julie Ludvigsen
- Considering the Spiral: The Child's Changing Consciousness Reflected in the Waldorf Curriculum, Grades 1-12 - Carol Bartges
- Teaching Subject Classes in Independent and Public Waldorf Education - Jason Child, with Special Guest Dan Foster, World Languages and Adria Osgood, Handwork
- Early Childhood: Renew, Balance, Ignite, and Inspire Joy - Kris Hughes
- The Waldorf High School & Adolescence: The Journey from the Subjective Self to the Objective World - David Barham and Frances Vig
- Special course offering during the in-person retreat: Waldorf Leadership Development - Online Monday-Thursday 1:00-5:00

Special Features of In-Person Week: NEW this year!

Guided Bird Walks, Forest Bathing Explorations, Restorative Yoga Healing Massage, Personal Facials, Immersion Therapy to Reset your Mind and Body

Renewal Courses Include:

- Daily Inspiring Lectures with Jack Petrash
- Singing with Jason Child
- Eurythmy with Mari Yamaguchi
- Teaching Physical Science in Grades 6, 7 & 8 with Will Minehart
- Teaching Singing and Music through Grades 1-8 with Meg O'Dell
- Activities and Extra Lessons to Support Whole Classes, EC - Grade 8 with Connie Helms

Free Evening Events:

- Monday, July 1st Lecture with Jen Kershaw on Project Based Learning Throughout the Grades: Providing Differentiated Learning for All
- Tuesday, July 2nd Alumni Reunion In Honor of Douglas Gerwin
- Wednesday, July 3rd Lecture with Katherine Nickel, Connecting to the Earth: Land Stewardship Programs in Waldorf Schools
- Thursday, July 4th Celebration with Fireworks

Renewal: Online Courses with Center for Anthroposophy

Online Courses, July 8-12, 2024

From your own chosen summertime location

- Joining the Circle: Preparing for Grade 1 - Lori Kran
- Our Feet in Two Worlds: Preparing for Grade 2 - Jen Persinotti
- Awakening to Self and Surroundings: Preparing for Grade 3 - Kris Ritz
- Ready, Willing, and Able: Preparing for Grade 4 - Joshua Gartland
- I Look into the World: Preparing for Grade 5 - Jen Kershaw
- Discovering Order in Chaos: Preparing for Grade 6 - Sarah Nelson
- Gaining Perspective: Preparing for Grade 7 - Alison Henry
- Revolutions of Awakening: Preparing for Grade 8 - Katherine Nickel

Special Features Included with Online Renewal Courses:

- Daily Lectures with Robyn Brown
- Teaching Science in Grades 6, 7 & 8 with Will Minehart
- Teaching Singing and Music through Grades 1-8 with Meg O'Dell
- Artistic Engagement through the Grades with Adrienne Patrick

Pricing and Registration Information

In-Person Tuition: $850

Lodging on the idyllic High Mowing Campus
Locally-sourced nourishing meals, prices vary

Online Tuition: $550

Community Gatherings, lectures, and daily singing

Registration opens February 1st

For more information,
Contact Karen Atkinson, Program Director
karen@centerforanthroposophy.org

centerforanthroposophy.org

