

Waldorf High School Teacher Training with Center for Anthroposophy

new cohort begins
July 14-28, 2024
in Wilton, NH

Study the arts and human development

Transform from within to meet the emerging needs of today's adolescents

A low-residency, part-time program for practicing teachers

.....

In-person summer intensives + online seminars + independent studies with a focus on mentorship and collegial support

.....

Featuring subject teacher specializations in literature, the sciences, art history, and math

Earn a graduate-level certificate to teach in a Waldorf High School

Since 1996, over 220 high school teachers have successfully completed our program.
Our certification is recognized by ASWNA and Waldorf high schools across the globe.

For more information,
Contact David Barham, Program Director
david@centerforanthroposophy.org

Program Summary of Waldorf High School Teacher Education Program at Center for Anthroposophy

A 25-month low-residency program starting in July 2024

---

Summer I: July 14 – 28, 2024

Two weeks in scenic Southern New Hampshire

Subject Teacher Specializations

- English Language & Literature with David Sloan
- Fine & Practical Arts with Michal Noer
- History & Civics with Paul Gierlach
- Life & Earth Science with Michael Holdrege
- Mathematics with Marisha Plotnik
- Physics & Chemistry with Cedar Oliver

Courses in the Arts

- Creative Speech with Debra Spitulnik
- Drama with David Sloan
- Eurythmy with Laura Radefeld
- Music with Meg O'Dell
- Sculpture with Michal Noer
- Spacial Dynamics with Jan Lyndes

Summer courses also include studies in adolescent development with David Barham and anthroposophical core texts with Paul Gierlach, Cedar Oliver, Marisha Plotnik

Fall & Spring Seminars: Online Between Summers I & II

September 2024 – March 2025

Join over 70 teacher from around the world in our Seminars on Contemporary Topics for High School Teachers: Starlight Rays in Darkened Times 12 sessions on Saturday afternoons 3 ET, including advising sessions for certificate students.

Half-day specialized subject seminars in November, January, March with presentations by : David Sloan, Michal Noer, Paul Gierlach, Michael Holdrege, Marisha Plotnik, Cedar Oliver

Our Certificate Program Features:

- Individual mentoring sessions throughout the school year for personal support
  - 12 –15 week practicum/internship
  - Personalized research project
  - Option of earning a fully accredited Master's Degree in Education
-

In-Person Summer II: July 13 – 27, 2025    Online Program Sept 2025-March 2026

In-Person Summer III: July 5 –26, 2026*

*Includes one-week course in Waldorf Leadership Development with Torin Finser & Carla Beebe Comey

For more information,
Contact David Barham, Program Director
david@centerforanthroposophy.org

