

Starlight Rays in Darkened Times

Seminars on Contemporary Topics

ONLINE SEMINAR SERIES
2026-2027

All seminars take place online from 3:00- 4:30 pm ET

Dates

Fall 2026-27

Sept. 5

Seminar Titles for Contemporary Topics

Steiner Frequently called the Waldorf School a Method School. Oh Really ? Which Methods are Those?

Instructor

Martyn Rawson

Sept. 26

Stepping Into Life: Cultivating Student Leadership

Vicki Larson
Heather Scott

Oct. 10

What Have They Been Doing in the Lower School?

Carol Bärtges

Oct. 31

What Does a Healthy Sensory Diet Look Like for the Modern Adolescent?

Adam Blanning

Nov. 7

Let's Get Real About Burnout

Alison Davis

Nov. 21

Does Spirit Matter?

Sven Saar

Dec. 12

"True Equality": How and Why We Sort Our Students

Cedar Oliver

Dec. 19

Citizenship and the search for knowledge on the human being as fundamentals for the teachers' work

Constanza Kaliks

Jan. 9

Talkin' 'bout my Generation: A Generational Perspective on our Schools

Liz Beaven

Jan. 23

Solid Foundations: The Three Critical Skills Every Ninth Grader Needs, and How to Teach Them

Nathan Wilcox

Feb. 13

Education in a Time of Systemic Change: Trends, Challenges, and Possibilities for Waldorf Schools

Beverly Amico

Feb. 27

Instilling Social Impulses in an Antisocial Age

David Barham

Center for Anthroposophy
Waldorf Teacher Education,
Renewal, & Research

Tuition for this series:

Individual: $420

Institution: $1,220

TO REGISTER VISIT: <https://centerforanthroposophy.org/starlightrays>